

INCK

INCKoming news!

The former buildings of the Graphic Lyceum and International School have been demolished. In their place, a vibrant new urban district is taking shape: INCK! This visual already gives a glimpse of how the buildings come together to form INCK, with inviting public spaces and courtyards.

- ☞ 400 owner-occupied apartments, city homes, and rental apartments
- ☞ Green courtyards and social spaces
- ☞ Peaceful yet close to everything
- ☞ Live, relax, meet, and enjoy life your way

Sales are expected to start later this year. Take a quick INCKside look!

Meet INCK Eindhoven!

This is INCK, a dynamic ensemble of two almost identical residential blocks (A and B). Each block consists of four buildings, whose names have now been revealed. We're currently busy preparing for the sales launch of the owner-occupied homes, starting with Block A. The website has already been updated with more information about the homes (from S to XL) and the broader INCK concept.

One to remember

The sales launch of the first phase of owner-occupied homes is planned for the end of 2025.

Zoning permit finalized

During the six-week objection period for the environmental permit issued by the Municipality of Eindhoven (April 4, 2025), for the realization of INCK, no objections were submitted. As a result, the permit has become final.

Billboard is coming up!

Starting mid-July, it will be visible: the construction sign of INCK will be placed at the corner of Karel de Grotelaan. We will proudly present the sign, marking the first visible step towards the future. Will you spot it too?

Pavilion

The presentation of the Pavilion at the walk-in session in late May was well attended. We received a lot of enthusiastic responses. The layout of the Pavilion has been coordinated with the Blaarthem Foundation. We're now working on the final details for the interior and exterior design. Woonbedrijf and the municipality are busy handling the necessary preparations: utilities are being arranged, and required procedures are being followed.

If everything goes according to plan, the Pavilion is still on track for completion in November.
